

The United States International Trade Commission is an independent, bipartisan, quasi-judicial, federal agency of the United States that provides trade expertise to both the legislative and executive branches.

Project

USITC - United States International Trade Commission

Products

Logica

Year of Completion

2018

Total Seats

72